Why Bad Things Seem to “Happen in Threes”

New geothermal system does not work and installers cannot seem to figure out what's wrong. Septic aerator pump dies. Tax files get lost in an online portal – twice! Three frustrating things right in a row. When I was younger, I often heard the phrase repeated, “Bad things happen in threes”, as if there was some anti-trinitarian formula of wickedness that besets us from time to time. On the one hand, empirical evidence and experience demonstrates some truth to this; it does seem like “bad luck” occurs on a sequential string. On the other hand, there are plenty of times when just ONE bad thing happens, or worse, four or five in a row! In other words, as Christians we cannot and should not “keep score” assuming more evil is to follow after one or two things happen, or no more is to come for a time after three.

When I expressed my displeasure at what was happening at the Hromowyk household the week after Easter to Vicar Mars, he replied, “Why does everything seem to break in waves?” My response to Vicar was, “That’s the nature of war and we are always in a spiritual battle!” The point of this month’s Newsletter Article is to flesh out his rhetorical question, and explain my response.

Spiritual warfare is a constant threat and reality, even though we are most often oblivious to it. “For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places” (Eph 6:12). When a physical conflict takes place, we experience it with our eyes, ears, and all our senses. Many times with spiritual conflict, however, we are unaware. Some of the devil’s attacks are almost unnoticeable. Temptations to doubt the truth of God’s Word, for example, can be as subtle as what the old serpent said to Eve, “Did God actually say?...” (Gen 3:1). On the other hand, when things seem to “break in waves” to use the Vicar’s words, they are much more tangible. We feel the anxiety and stress to fix them as soon as possible. My septic tank, for example, is a ticking time bomb. Every minute the pump is not pumping is another minute when oxygen is not circulating in the water, killing the healthy bacteria that decompose waste. As noxious gases and waste increase, so does the likelihood of a total system failure – a huge expense. What does the Christian do when full of anxiety or stress? I’ll tell you what the sinful flesh does. It fears, love, and trusts in itself, time, money, etc., instead of the one true God. To cope with stress the sinful flesh is tempted to over eat (gluttony). It’s tempted to do nothing at all, which the avoidance of resolving a problem is the sin of acedia, often translated as “slothfulness.” I, for one, get very irritable and agitated when stressed out, so I often am plagued by wrath. I also try not to spend too much money to fix things, which is often a symptom of greed. In four sentences I just identified four of the seven deadly sins.

The point is the devil uses these stressors to tempt us to “false belief, despair, and other great shame and vice” (Lord’s Prayer, 6th petition). This is spiritual warfare. The reason why we often perceive “bad things happening in threes” is because just as when one side in a war attacks their enemy on different fronts at the same time, so also the devil often attacks us the same way. If just my pump broke, for example, I could focus on this one thing, get it fixed, and get back to normal life. But when more than one thing is going on at a time, it’s like when a military unit gets attacked from the air, in front of them, and gets flanked on either side. Spiritually, this is the feeling of “being overwhelmed.” We all know this experience far too well. This is when the Christian is most susceptible to temptation.

So what does the Christian do? First, we pray that the Lord would lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil (Lord’s Prayer). Second, we commend ourselves to God (Ps 31:5), asking for help to navigate the tumultuous seas, and trusting His holy angels to be with us that the evil foe have no power over us (Luther’s Morning and Evening Prayers).

Easter Breakfast: We had 200 people who attended the breakfast this year! We are thankful for all who attended and to all who helped our Board in any way! It was a very blessed day with our church family - worshipping our Risen Lord and having wonderful fellowship together.

Mark your calendars!!

Our 8th Annual Cornhole Tournament on Saturday, May 30, 10:00AM-2:00PM. This will be held outside, in our gated lot, on the north side of our building. Food will be provided—Sandwiches, Chips, Dessert and Bottled Water. We are asking for people to bring their own lawn chairs. Look for sign-up sheets in the narthex and in the fellowship hall; there is an adult bracket and a kid bracket (for kids 14 years old and under).

The deadline to sign-up is Sunday, May 24, to allow for food planning and for bracket assignments. FYI there will be medals awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners, in both the Adult and Kid Brackets. Hope to see a great turnout for this fun event!!

Church Picnic is Sunday, August 16, 4:00-7:30PM
(eating together at 5:00PM)

We have reserved the North Shelter at Thompson Park on this day. Details will be communicated closer to the date.

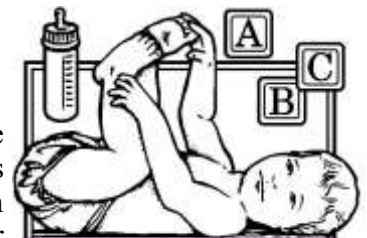

A BIG Thank You! to all of our members who have been saving can rings for the Ronald McDonald House. Zion members saved a very large number of rings before Christmas and then again after Christmas! The people at the Ronald McDonald House are always grateful for our contributions. This small gift from us helps pay for the electricity used at the Ronald McDonald House. Parents of ill children stay at this house while their children are undergoing treatment. Our Christian love is shown in many ways! Thanks again!

ANNUAL WALK FOR LIFE – Thank you to all those who walked on a beautiful sunny day on April 11 and to all those who donated. Lutherans for Life's Word of Hope ministry will be so happy to receive the funds raised this year. Our WALK started off with Pastor Hromowyk leading us through a short Prayer Service followed with a hymn. During our WALK we sang a few hymns and after the WALK people stayed for a brunch and fellowship. THANK YOU ALL SO MUCH!

ANNUAL DIAPER AND WIPES DRIVE – Our annual diaper and wipes drive for the Alpha Pregnancy Help Center here in Columbus will run from Mother's Day, May 10 until Father's Day, June 21. The real need this year is for diapers in sizes 4 – 6, but they are grateful for any support you can give. Please leave your donations in the marked boxes at both the front and back doors of the church.

Diaper & Wipe Drive

GREATER COLUMBUS RIGHT TO LIFE BANQUET ON MONDAY, JUNE 8 – The Life Team invites members of Zion to attend the banquet, “An Evening with Mark Houck!”

You may have heard Mark's name in the headlines again, this time for a remarkable pro-life victory against Biden's DOJ. There is so much more to this action packed, history-making story. When faith and freedom were on the line, Mark did not back down.

The banquet is held at Villa Milano and is free, with an offering request at the end of the evening. If interested in going, you can register online at www.gctrl.org.

LIFE QUOTE - “If you're a single parent, don't count yourself out ... If you're widowed or divorced, don't count yourself out. If you've never married, don't count yourself out. We sinners are all in this together. We want to see the relevance of faith for our daily lives. We hear the religious talk and we humbly ask, 'How does this apply to me?' The answer is that the glory of Christ's resurrection is for us all. It continues in the message of forgiveness and hope we experience each time we gather together.” Rev. Dr. Dale Meyer, Speaker Emeritus of “The Lutheran Hour” – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org

Many thanks to everyone who purchased Easter flowers to beautify the sanctuary in celebration of our Risen Lord!

It's the Annual Musicians ThankYOU Banquet! Sunday, May 24 12 noon

A time to gather and give thanks to God for the musical talents HE's given to those who faithfully serve with His gifts.

Entire Zion Family encouraged to attend. Catered Meal

Please RSVP to the church office By Sunday, May 17th

Each year, nearly 2,500 volunteers dedicate more than 35,000 hours to sharing compassion and hope with people in need across our programs. Whether serving meals, organizing donations, distributing food or supporting special events, every volunteer plays a vital role in advancing our mission to create a better world by serving people in need. Thank YOU for being an important part of this mission!

On behalf of all of us at LSS, we all want to express our gratitude for your continued support of our residents, clients, staff and the communities we serve.

Finally, we confess the Creed, learning to trust that our Maker, Redeemer, and Sanctifier is faithful, and “will not let (us) be tempted beyond what (we) can bear” (1 Cor 10:13).

When you feel overwhelmed, “Be still and know that I am God” (Ps 46:10) as our Lord says. The warfare will soon be ended. As Christ calmed the wind and stormy seas with a simple rebuke of His Word (Mk 4:39), so also all the failings and frustrations of life in this fallen world will soon cease. Christ has the victory. “The strife is o’er, the battle done” as we sing in the Easter hymn. Be still, and patiently and joyfully wait for His returning. It is coming soon, because Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed! Alleluia!

In Christ,
Pastor Hromowyk
