Reformation History: Of Word & Sacrament

It's October! The excitement of Reformation Day will soon be upon us: Zion will be filled with Martin Luther's A Mighty Fortress Is Our God – the battle hymn of the Reformation. Red paraments and vestments will adorn the church – reminders of the power and fire of the Holy Spirit, who gives all people the power to call upon and share the name of Jesus Christ. And for me, especially this year, I will be reminded of the week I spent walking Lutheran history in Wittenberg, Germany – birthplace of the Reformation.

In August, Tirzah and I were very blessed to be able to attend a work conference with her missionary team, specially hosted this year in Wittenberg. We visited the homes of Luther and Melanchthon (writer of the Augsburg Confession). We went to the Castle Church and saw the doors where Luther nailed the 95 Theses. We looked at original books, writings, and signatures of the Reformers and walked the same streets they walked. We ate in a bar Martin Luther himself frequented.

A couple weeks ago, a picture hanging in Pastor's office caught my eye, and I thought "Hey! I've seen that before." It is of the altarpiece which stands in St. Mary's City Church in Wittenberg. Tirzah and I attended Matins with the missionaries there each morning. It was my favorite church I saw in Europe (and we saw some impressive ones). St. Mary's is the church Martin Luther attended and often preached, and where he and Katie married and had all their children baptized.

The painting was done by Lucas Cranach, an artist who captured much of the Reformation while it was happening. The altarpiece consists of four panels. Three panels across the top depict Philipp Melanchthon at a baptismal font, Martin Luther at the Last Supper, and Johannes Bugenhagen (Luther's pastor at St. Mary's) administering Confession and Absolution. If you aren't familiar with some of these names, I encourage you to learn about the Luthers, Melanchthon, Bugenhagen and Cranach this Reformation month. They are, after all, among our Lutheran forefathers.

The artwork of the altarpiece teaches some of the very central themes of the Reformation: Word and Sacrament. Melanchthon, the only one of the three who is not a pastor, accompanies the Sacrament of Holy Baptism (since that is the sacrament a layman could administer in an emergency situation). Pastors Luther and Bugenhagen accompany the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper and the Office of the Keys, the work that Christ gave specifically to called and ordained pastors to administer.

The fourth panel under these three is the most important. It depicts Luther preaching the Word of Christ crucified for the forgiveness of sins to the congregation. But note the position of Christ in the bottom panel. With His hands positioned at the top of the panel, it is as if He is holding up the three panels above Him, which of course He does! Christ's Word powers and holds up the Sacraments and the Office of the Keys. The work of the Church [AC.VII] is on display in Cranach's altarpiece – to preach the Gospel and administer the forgiveness of sins to Christ's flock through the Sacraments and Absolution. But the work of the Church always rests on the Word, on the power, and on the strength of our Lord Jesus Christ and His forgiveness of sins given to all freely by faith.

“Faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ” [Rom. 10:17]. Here is a picture of me, standing in the pulpit of St. Mary's City Church, Cranach's altarpiece in the background. Note how far into the pews the pulpit stands. The altar is almost 100 feet behind me in the pulpit. The pulpit is just about in the center of where the people sit. This was a change implemented by Martin Luther, because he felt the Word had to be in the midst of the people, so they could hear it and have it work on their hearts. This Reformation, let us give thanks to God for the Reformation and the Reformers He used to make His Word and Sacraments available to the people once again.

LSS FOOD PANTRIES

Thankful Holiday Meal Bags

Full Plates, Hearts Full of Gratitude

Your HELP is Greatly Appreciated!

The Lutheran Social Services Network of Hope provides hope and healing for people in crisis. The LSS Food Pantries serve people in need by offering a source of nourishment to families who are food insecure. Active in hunger relief since 1927, the LSS Food Pantries operate a 12-county food pantry system, one of Ohio's largest. Our pantries provide emergency food to 4,000 families each month.

Our holiday traditions are deeply intertwined with food. But tough choices - between food or medicine, food or utilities, food or transportation, and even food or housing - mean that many of our neighbors struggle to enjoy the festive meal that graces the Thanksgiving table. You can help by donating Thankful Holiday meal bags to help families in need celebrate Thanksgiving! Bags are distributed to families with a turkey, bread and produce for their Thanksgiving meal.

Bags should contain (only)

- ♥ 1 box of instant mashed potatoes (13.75 oz. size)
- ♥ 2 cans of fruit (suggestions: peaches, applesauce, pears)
- ♥ 3 cans of green beans
- ♥ 2 cans of corn
- ♥ 2 cans of pumpkin
- ♥ 1 can of cranberry sauce
- ♥ 1 box or bag of stuffing mix
- ♥ 1 gravy packet
- ♥ 1 boxed dessert mix

Here's how YOU can help!

1. Pick up/sign out a reusable bag, which will be available starting on Reformation Sunday, on a table in the Fellowship Hall.
2. Take the bag home and fill it with the listed items.

3. Bring the filled bags back to Zion and place in the designated area at the back door. Deadline is Sunday, November 15, 2026.
4. The bags will be delivered to the Food Pantry.

LWML Lutheran Women's Missionary League

The LARGE LWML Mite Box™ will be in the Narthex of the church for two Sundays, October 4th & 11th. Donations to LWML Large Mite Box help with Mission Grants throughout the LCMS. National Grants are chosen on odd years based on the amount of money requested and what the money will be used for. The 2025-2027 budget goal is $2,622,270, for 33 Mission Grants. District LWML Grants are chosen on even years, 2026-2028. The goal is $122,700. Seventy-five percent of Mites go to the district, twenty-five percent go to National. Donations are tax deductible. Please help by putting payments in a blue envelope and placing them in the Large Mite Box in the narthex. (cash or checks made out to Ohio District LWML). Pray for generous hearts to meet the goals of this wonderful mission organization.

Please see the Zion October Newsletter for a list of 33 Grants that need funding.
